SHEWING THE

Antiquity of Singing PSALMS and HYMNS; with an Account of this Book, and the Use thereof.

HE Praising of GOD by Pfalms and Hymns, as it seems a part of Natural Religion owned and used by all Mankind, fo we find the Practice of it very early in the Church of God. There can be no just cause to doubt, but that it was at least contemporary with Instrumental Musick; a thing as ancient as the Times of Adam, invented by Jubal who was the Father of all fuch as handle the Harp and Organ, Gen. 4. 21. But we need not build upon Conjectures, where we have clear Evidence. After the famous Deliverance which God gave the Ifraelites at the Red-Sea, they celebrated the Mercy with a Song of Triumph; and Josephus fays, They fpent the whole night in Hymns and Mirth: Then fang Mofes and the children of Ifrael this fong unto the Lord, Exod. 15. 1. which is there upon . Record, composed (as Josephus adds) in Hexameter Verse; and that it was conjoyned with Instrumental Musick is plain, vers. 20, 21. And Miriam the Prophetess, the lifter of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with Dances: And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, &c. But the first that established singing Plalms and Hymns, as a fix'd and constant part of God's publick Worship in the solemn Assemblies of the Jewish Church, was King David; whose zeal for God's Glory (before the House of God was built) fer himself to compose divers Plalms for that fervice, as we read in 1 Chron. 16. 7. and ch. 25. v. 6, 7. and to chuse out Men skilful in Song to perform the same to the praise of Almighty God. When his Son Solomon had finished the Temple, at the Dedication thereof, you may read in 2 Chron. 5. 12, 13, 14. how the Praises of the Lord were founded forth with Voices and Instruments, and also how acceptable it was to the Lord. This being established, the Priests and Levites continued this solema Worship during the time of the First and Second Temple, even till the Destruction thereof, foretold by our blessed Saviour, who saw the Glory thereof, and frequented that place, as he acknowledgeth, Luke 22.53. I was daily with you in the Temple. And (as a Learned Divine observes) it is not credible, that our blessed Saviour, who so often quoted David's Psalms for the confirmation of his Doctrine, would neglect that part of Worship then in force, and who did himself say, That it became him to fulfil all righteousness; which he farther testified, when together with his Disciples he sung a Psalm or Hymn at the end of the Celebration of his Last Supper. After his Ascension, his Disciples gave testimony of their Approbation, Acts 2.46, 47. They were daily with one accord in the temple praising God, &c. And Acts 3.1. mentions, that Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer; which was the set time for the Celebration of publick Worship.

The Use of Singing Psalms and Hymns was continued with great Reverence and Devotion among the Primitive Christians; those who confult the Writings of the Primitive Fathers, shall scarce meet with one that makes not mention thereof. An account hereof I find learnedly discoursed by Dr. Cave in his Primitive Christianity, Part. 1. p. 276, 277. where, speaking of reading the appointed Lessons, he hath these words:

About this part of the Service it was that they sung Hymns and Psalms, a considerable part of the Divine Worship, (as it had ever been accounted both amongst Jews and Gentiles) and more immediately serviceable for Celebrating the Honour of God, and lifting up the Minds of Men to Divine and Heavenly Raptures.

But to come nearer our Times: In our late Forefathers days, (upon the Restauration of our Church to its Primitive Purity and Discipline) it was, That some holy and godly Men brought the present use and manner of singing Psalms into the Publick Service of our Church, sollowing herein the Examples of the Resormed Churches in France and Germany: But Time and long Use hath much abated! the wonted Reverence and Estimation it had for about 100 Years after this Establishment. It was the Saying of a Learned Divine in his Sermon on this Subject, That Prayer shall cease, and Preaching shall cease, but Praising of GOD shall never cease, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come. To sing Praises to God, is an Angelic Office; it is a taste of the First Fruits of Heaven while we are on Earth. MUSICK (the Learned say) is the Handmaid to Divinity; and there is no Science, except That, admitted into the Service of the Church.

To conclude: I have made it my Endeavour so to perfect and finish this Work, that nothing should be wanting to render it useful to the End it is designed. The Glory of GOD, and the Publick Service of the Church: And for that reason, (with the Judgment of some of the best skill'd in Musick) I have Composed all the Musical Tunes into Three Parts, viz. Cansus, Medius, and Bassus: The Church Tune is placed in the Treble

The Preface.

Part, (which is the Cantus) with the Bass under it, as most proper to joyn Voice and Instrument together, according to holy David's prescription, Pfal. 144. 9. And fince many of our Churches are lately furnished with Organs, it will also be useful for the Organist; and likewise for fuch Students in the Univerlities as shall practife Song, to fing to a Lute or Viol. The Medius Part is composed (as is proper) not to rife above the Church Tune, to cloud or obscure the Ayre thereof, except in fuch places as it could not be well avoided. The Bass is composed in fuch a compass of Notes, as will suit an indifferent Voice both below and above. All Three Parts may as properly be fung by Men, as by Boys or Women: And to that end, the two Upper Parts are constant in the G fol re ut Cliff, and the Bass in the F fa ut (its proper) Cliff; all Three Parts moving together in Solemn way of Counterpoint, and also every Tune put in fuch Keys as is most suitable to the Ayre thereof. Lastly, you will find every Psalm fitted to Tunes suitable and proper to the Matter: Plalms of Prayer and Confession, to solemn grave Flat Tunes; Pfalms of Thanksgiving and Praise, to lively chearful Sharp Tunes. Likewise all such Psalms and Hymns whose Tunes are long, and may seem difficult to fome, have Directions over them to be fung to other fhort Common Tunes. Also there is affixed before the Book, a Table of the first Line of the Treble-Tunes of all the Pfalms, with the Names alphaberiacally fet over each Tune; and under, what Pfalms are fung to them: And a Table of Hymns in a Page by themselves. As for Instructions to the Singing of them, I refer you to my Introduction to the Skill of Musick, in 8°.

I have no more to add, but as the Glory of GOD, and the Service of his Church, was my fole End and Aim; fo I shall account my Labour and Pains herein sufficiently recompensed, if it prove Useful to such as so endeavour to sing the Praises of their Creator here on Earth in Psalms and Hymns, that hereafter they may eternally sing Hallelujahs among the blessed Choir of Saints and Angels. Which is the hearty Prayer of

Your Faithful Servant,

John Playford.

Of the Virtue and Efficacy of the PSALMS.

I N the Psalms are described the rewards of good, the punishments of evil men, the rudiments of beginners, the progress of proficients, and con-

Summation of perfect men.

The Singing of Plalms comforteth the forrowful, pacifieth the angry, firengtheneth the weak, humbleth the proud, gladdeth the humble, firrethup the flow, reconcileth enemies, lifteth up the heart to heavenly things, and uniteth the Creature to his Creator; for whatsoever is in the Plalms, conduceth to the edification, benefit, and consolation of mankind.

If thou would'ft make a confession, and repent thee of thy sins; then with remorfe and humility sing the 7 Penitential Psalms of David, viz. Psal. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143. and thou shalt feel the sweet mercies of God and thy mind refreshed with spiritual joy.

If thou would'ft pray; then pour forth thy foul in Pfal. 25, 54, 67, 70, 72, 86, 143, for the foul of man cannot either feelingly express its misery, tribulation, and anguish of temptation, or more powerfully call upon the mercy of God, than in these Pfalms.

If thou would'st praise the Majesty of God, or give him thanks for all his benefits; then sing Psal. 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 111, 113, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150.

If thou art io far afflicted with outward and inward temptations, that thouseemest to be forsaken; then sing heartily Psal. 22, 64, 69.

If this prefent life be tedious unto thee, and that with an ardent desire, thou waitest to see God; then sing Psal. 42, 63, 84.

If thou find thy self quite dejected, and (as it were) forlorn in trouble; then with compunction of heart sing Psal. 13, 31, 44, 54, 56. And if thou hast found ease and rest unto thy soul, then sing to the praise of God Psal. 30, 34, 103, 104. And always (whether in time of adversity or prosperity) sing out the Song of the 3 holy Children, wherein every creature is invited to praise God.

If thou defirest to exercise thy self in God's divine praises and precepts; then sing Psal, 119. wherein, if thou search even all thou canst, yet thou wilt never perfectly understand the virtues and excellencies, or reach to the beights and depths comprehended in it; for hardly is there a Verse, wherein is not mention made of God's Law, Commandments, Testimonies, or Precepts.

In a word, he that gives these heavenly Hymns their due, had need to compose a Psalm in praise of the Psalms, that so the devout and joyful soul might, with looking up to God, restect upon its own work, and transport it self unto the Choir of Angels and Saints, whose perpetual task is to sing their concording Parts without pause, redoubling and descanting, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. And if Vocal Musick be not enough, let the Instrumental be added, Rev. 15. 2, 3. They have in their hands the harps of God, and sing the song of Moses, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty. Amen.

The PSALMS of DAVID in Metre.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows | 5 Therefore shall not the wicked men fast by the river side: in judgment stand upright:

Which bringeth forth most pleasant in her due time and tide. (fruit Whose leaf shall never sade nor sall, but slourish still and stand:

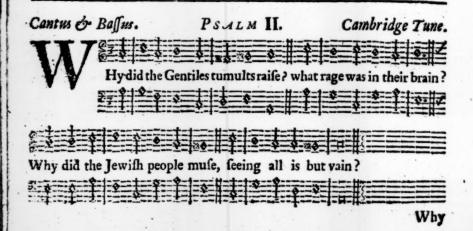

Ev'n fo all things shall prosper well, that this man takes in hand.

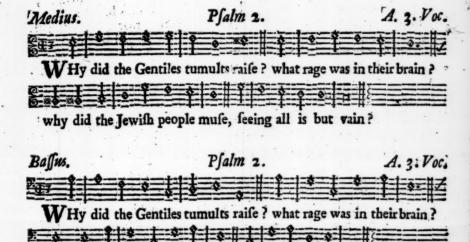

4 So shall not the ungodly men, they shall be nothing so: But as the dust which from the earth the wind drives to and fro. 5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in judgment stand upright: Nor yet the sinners with the just shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known: And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft, all Glo-ry be therefore:

As in beginning was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Why did the Jewish people muse, seeing all is but vain?

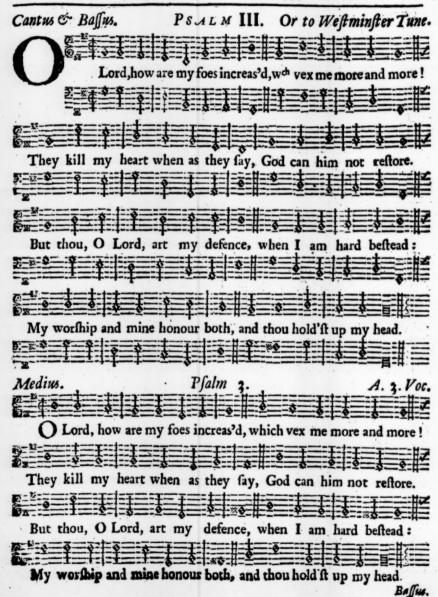

- conspire, and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son. which he among us fent.
- 3Shall we be bound to them, fay they? let all their bonds be broke : And of their doctrine and their law let us reject the yoke.
- A But he that in the heaven dwells; their doings will deride: And make them all as mocking stocks throughout the world fo wide.
- For in his wrath the Lord will fay to them upon a day : And in his fury trouble them, and then the Lord will fay:
- 6 I have anointed him my King upon my holy hill: I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law, and eke declare thy will.

- 2 The Kings and Rulers of the earth [ 7 For in this wife the Lord himself did fay to me I wot. Thou art my dear and only Son, to day I thee begot.
  - 8 All people I will give to thee, as heirs at thy request : The ends and coasts of all the earth by thee shall be possest.
  - 9 And thou shalt break them mighas with an iron rod: And as a Potters vessel thou shalt dash them all abroad.
  - 10 Now ye, O Kings and Rulers all, be wife therefore, and learn'd, By whom the matters of the world be judged and discern'd.
  - 11 See that ye ferve the Lord above in trembling and in fear: See that with rev'rence ye rejoyce to him in like manner. 12 See

12 See that ye kiss, and eke embrace | 13 If once his wrath never so small his bleffed Son, I say, Lest in his wrath he suddenly perish in the mid-way.

- shall kindle in his breast:
- O then all they that trust in Christ. shall happy be and blest.

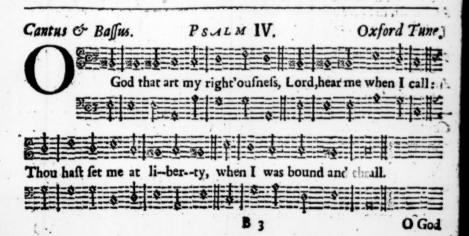

- I did both call and cry: And he out of his holy hill did hear me speedily. 5 I laid me down, and quietly I sept, and rose again: For why? I know affuredly
- 6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in, I could not be afraid: For thou art still my Lord and God, my Saviour and mine aid.

the Lord will me fustain.

- 4 Then with my voice upon the Lord | 7 Rife up therefore, fave me, my God. for now to thee I call: For thou haft broke the cheeks and of these wicked men all.
  - 8 Salvation only doth belong to thee, O Lord, above : Thou doft bestow upon thy folk thy bleffing and thy love.
  - To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft, all glory be therefore :

As in beginning was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Pfalm iv, v.

Thou hast set me at li-ber-ty, when I was bound and thrall.

Thou hast fet me at li-ber-ty, when I was bound and thrall.

- 2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me, 6 Offer to God the facrifice and grant me my request: For unto thee unceffantly, to cry I will not rest.
- 3 O mortal men how long will ye my glory thus despise? Why wander ye in vanity, and follow after lies?
- Know ye that good and godly men the Lord doth take and chuse : And when to him I make my plaint, he doth me not refuse.
- 5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore, examine well your heart: And in your chamber quietly, fee you your felves convert.

- of righteousness, I say: And look that in the living Lord you put your trust alway.
- 7 The greater fort crave worldly and riches do embrace: (goods, But, Lord, grant us thy countenance, thy favour and thy grace.
- 8 For thou thereby shalt make my more joyful and more glad, (heart Than they that of their corn & wine full great increase have had.
- 9 In peace therefore lie down will I. taking my rest and sleep : For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in fafety keep.

And hear my voice, my King, my God, to thee I make my pray'r.

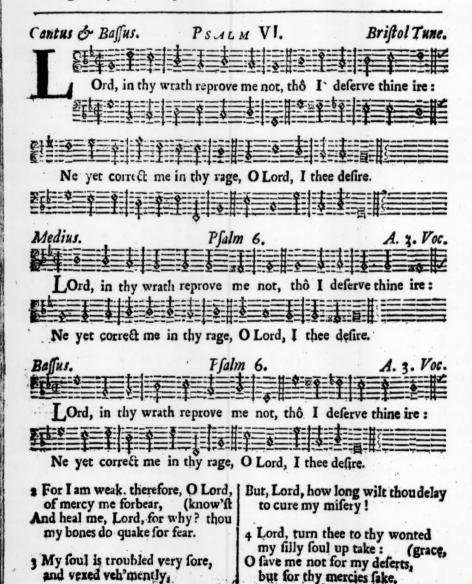

- 3 Hear me betime, Lord tarry not, For I will have respect My prayer early in the morn to thee for to direct.
- 4 And I will trust through patience in thee my God alone: (ness, Thou art not pleas'd with wickedand ill with thee dwells none.
- 5 And in thy fight shall never stand these cruel men, O Lord: Vain workers of iniquity thou hast always abhorr'd.
- 6 The liers and the flatterers thou shalt destroy them than: And God will hate the blood thirsty and the deceitful man.

- 7 Therefore will I come to thine trusting upon thy grace: (house, And rev'rently will worthip thee towards thine holy place.
- 8 Lord lead me in thy righteouines, for to confound my foes:
  And eke the way that I shall walk, before my face disclose.
- 9 For in their mouths there is no their heart is foul and vain: Their throat an open fepulchre, their tongues do glose and fain.
- that they may come to nought:
  Subvert them in their heaps of fin, which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in | 12 For thou with favour wilt increase let them be glad always: (thee, And render thanks for thy defence, and give thy name the praise.

s For

5 For why? no manamong the dead | 8 But now away from me, all ye remembreth thee one whit: that work iniquity:

Or who shall worship thee, O Lord, in the infernal pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and moan, that I wax wondrous faint, All the night long I wash my bed with tears of my complaint.

7 My fight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart:
For fear of those that be my foes, and would my soul subvert.

8 But now away from me, all ye that work iniquity: For why? the Lord hath heard the of my complaint and cry. (voice

9 He heard not only the request and prayer of my heart, But it received at my hands, and took it in good part.

the Lord will foon defame,
And fuddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

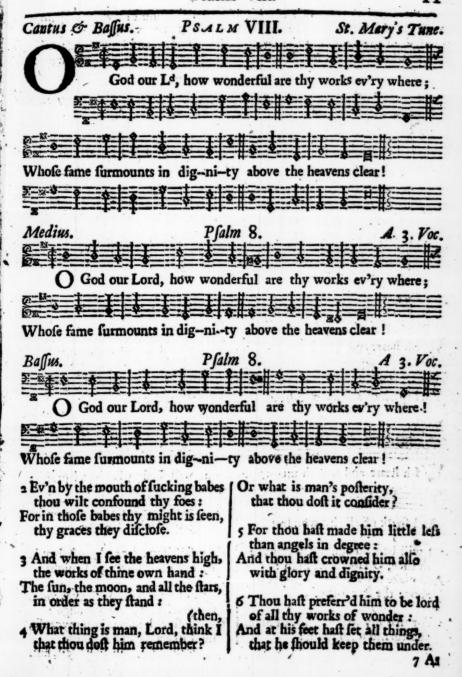

- and rend in pieces small:
  While there is none to succour me,
  and rid me out of thrall.
- 3 O Lord, my God, if I have done the thing that is not right; Or else if I be found in fault, or guilty in thy fight:
- 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill, or left him in diffress, Which me pursu'd most cruelly, And hated me causeless:
- 5 Then let my foes purfue my foul, and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.
- 6 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath, and put my foes to pain:
  Perform the kingdom promifed to me which wrong fustain.
- 7 Then shall great nations come to and know thee by this thing, If thou declare for love of them, thy self as Lord and King.
- O Lord, now judge thou me
  According to my righteousness, and mine integrity.

  The second pare.
- o Lord, cease the hate of wicked men, and be the just man's guide:

  Ry whom the secrets of all hearts

By whom the fecrets of all hearts are fearched and describ'd.

How famous, and how wonderful, are thy works through the world.

2 I will be glad and much rejoyce in thee, O God most high : And make my fongs extol thy Name above the starry sky.

3 For that my foes are driven back, and turned unto flight:

They fall down flat, and are destroy'd by thy great pow'r and might.

4 Thou haft revenged allmy wrong, my grief, and all my grudge : Thou doft with justice hear my cause, most like a righteous Judge.

Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk, | 13 Have mercy Ld on me poor wretch and wicked fo confound : That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.

The Second part. 11 Sing Pfalms therefore unto the that dwells in Sion hill: (Lord, Publish among all Nations his noble acts and will.

12 For he is mindful of the blood of those that be opprest: Forgetting notth' afflicted heart. that feeks to him for rest.

whose en'mies still remain: Which from the gates of death art to raise me up again.

14 In Sion that I might fet forth thy praise with heart and voice: And that in thy falvation, Lord, my foul might still rejoyce.

15 The heathen stick fast in the pit that they themselves prepard: And in the net that they did fet, their own feet fast are snar'd. (were good,

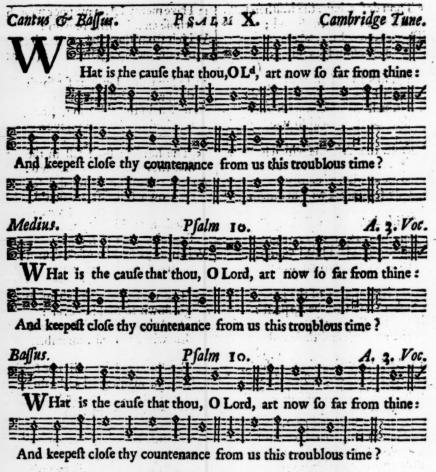

16 God shews his judgments which for ev'ry man to mark: When as ye fee the wicked man lie trapt in his own wark.

17 The wicked and deceitful men go down to hell for ever : And all the people of the world that will not God remember.

18 But fure the Lord will not forget the poor man's grief and pain : The parient people never look for help of God in vain.

19 O Lord, arise, lest men prevail that be of worldly might: And let the heathen folk receive their judgment in thy fight:

20 Lord, strike such terror, fear and into the hearts of them : (dread, That they may know affuredly, they be but mortal men.

2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked men's desire: Let them be taken in the crast that they themselves conspire.

- 3 For in the lust of his own heart th'ungodly doth delight:
  So doth the wicked praise himself, and doth the Lord despight.
- He is so proud, that right & wrong he setteth all apart;

- Nay, nay, there is no God, faith he, for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Because his ways do prosper still, he doth thy laws neglect: And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
- 6 Tufh, tufh, faith he, I have no dread lest mine estate should change: And why? for all adversity to him is very strange.

7 His

7 His mouth is full of curledness, of fraud, deceit, and guile: Under his tongue doth mischief sit, and travel all the while.

8 He lieth hid in ways and holes, to flay the innocent: Against the poor that pass him by, his cruel eyes are bent.

o And, like a lion, privily lies lurking in his den:
If he may fnare them in his net,
to fpoil poor fimple men.

no And for the nonce full craftily he coucheth down, I fay:
So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong pow'r his prey.

The second part.

Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he, therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside, he doth it not behold.

12 Arise, O Lord, O God, in whom the poor man's hope doth rest: List up thine hand, forget not, Lord, the poor that be opprest. 13 What blasphemy is this to thee, Lord, dost thou not abhor't? To hear the wicked in their heart say, Tush, thou car'ft not for't?

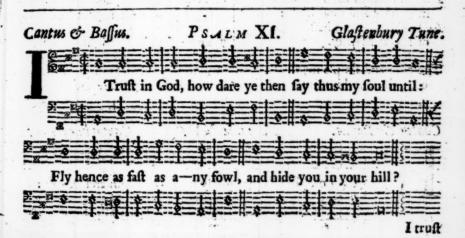

14 But thou seest all their wickedness, and well dost understand, That friendless and poor fatherless are lest into thy hand.

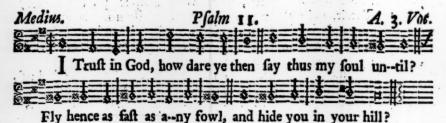

then break the pow'r for ev'r:
That they with their iniquity may perish altogether.

16 The Lord shall reign for evermore as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folk out of the land each one.

(men's plaint, 17 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poor their prayers and request:
Their hearts thou wilt confirm, until thine ears to hear be prest.

18 To judge the poor and fatherless, and help them to their right: That they may be no more oppress by men of worldly might.

Fly hence as fast as a-ny fowl, and hide you in your hill?

2 Behold the wicked bend their bows, | And fearcheth out full narrowly and make their arrows prest: To shoot in secret, and to hurt the found and harmless breast. (fhrunk,

3 Of worldly hope all stays were and clearly brought to nought: Alas, the just and righteous man, what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his Temple is most holy and most high: And in the heavens hath his feat of Royal Majesty.

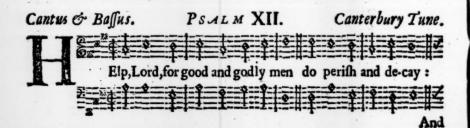

The poor and fimple man's estate confid'reth in his mind:

the manners of mankind.

s And with a chearful countenance the righteous man will use: But in his heart he doth abhor all fuch as mischief muse.

6 And on the finners casteth snares, as thick as any rain: Fire and brimftone, and whirlwinds appointed for their pain. (thick,

7 Ye fee then how a righteous God doth righteousness embrace: And to the just and upright men shews forth his pleasant face.

Pfalm 12.

A. 3. Voc.

And faith and truth from worldly men is parted clean away.

- e Whoso doth with his neighbour his talk is all but vain: (talk, For ev'ry man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and fain.
- 3 But flattering and deceitful lips, & tongues that be fo frout: (brags, To speak proud words, & make great the Lord soon cuts them out.
- 4 For they fay still, We will prevail, our tongues shall us extol: (speak, Our tongues are ours, we ought to what Lord shall us control?
- 5 But for the great complaint and cry of poor and men oppress :

- Arise will I now, saith the Lord, and them restore to rest.
- 6 God's Word is like the filver pure, that from the earth is try'd: And hath no less than seven times in fire been purify'd.
- 7 Now fith thy promife is to help, Lord, keep thy promife then: And fave us now, and evermore, from this ill kind of men.
- 8 For now the wicked world is full of mischies manifold:
  When vanity with worldly men fo highly is extoll'd.

2 In heart and mind how long shall I | Lest they also that hate my foul, with care tormented be ? How long eke thall my deadly foes thus triumph over me.?

3 Behold me now, my Lord, my God, and hear me fore opprest:

Lighten mine eyes, left that I fleep as one by death possest.

4 Lest that mine en'mies say to me, Behold, I do prevail:

rejoyce to fee me fail.

5 But from thy mercy, and goodness. my hope shall never start: In thy relief and faving health right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord, and praises to him fing: Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing.

3 Thou haft well try'd me in the and yet could'ft nothing find That I have spoken with my tongue, that was not in my mind.

4 As for the works of wicked men, and paths perverse and ill: For love of thy most holy Name, I have refrained still.

flay me, Lord, and preferve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, furely thou wilt me aid: (well Then hear my pray'r, & weigh right the words that I have faid.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength to them that against thy Majesty. (kick)

8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep the apple of thine eye: And under covert of thy wings desend me secretly. The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me, and daily me annoy:

And from my foes that go about my foul for to destroy.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st | 17 But I shall with pure conscience with pleasure to their mind: behold thy gracious face:

Their children have enough and to theirs the rest behind. (leave

17 But I shall with pure conscience behold thy gracious face: So when I wake, I shall be full of thine image and grace.

When I fing laud unto the Lord, most worthy to be ferv'd:

Then from my fces I am right fure that I shall be preserved.

4 The pangs of death did compass me, and bound me ev'ry where:

The flowing waves of wickedness did put me in great fear.

5 The fly and fubtle fnares of hell were round about me fet:

And for my death, there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus befet with pain and grief, did pray to God for grace:

And he forthwith did hear my plaint out of his holy place.

7 Such is his pow'r, that in his wrath he made the earth to quake:

Yea, the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

And from his nostrils came a fmoke, when kindled was his ire:

And from his mouth came kindled of hot confuming fire. (coals

9 The Lord descended from above, and bow'd the heavens high:

And underneath his feet he cast the darkness of the sky.

10 On Cherubs, and on Cherubins, full royally he rode:

And on the wings of all the winds came flying all abroad.

The fecond part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:

With waters black, and airy clouds, environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face in brightness shall appear:
Then clouds confume & in their stead

Then clouds confume, & in their stead come hail and coals of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunderbolts difperfe them here and there:

And with his often lightnings, he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatnings, and at thy chiding chear,

The fprings and the foundations of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord fent to fetch me from below: (down

And pluck'd me out of watersgreat, that would me overflow.

16 And me deliver from my foes that would have made me thrall: Yea, from fuch foes as were too ftrong for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppress in time of my great grief:

But yet the Lord, was my defence, my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place, whereas I might be free:

And kept me fafe, because he had a favour unto me.

o And as I was an innocent, fo did he me regard:

And to the cleanness of my hands he gave me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his ways, and in his paths have trod:

And have not waver'd wickedly against my Lord and God.

The Third part.

21 But evermore I have respect to his law and decree:

His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, & uncorrupt, appear'd before his face:

And did refrain from wickedness and fin in any case.

23 The Lord will therefore me reas I have done aright: (ward, And to the cleanness of my hands, appearing in his fight.

24 For, Lord, with him that holy is, wilt thou be holy too:

And with the good and virtuous men right virtuously wilt do. 25 And to the loving and clest, thy love thou wilt referve: And thou wilt use the wicked men, as wicked men deferve.

26 For thou dost fave the simple folk in trouble when they lie:

And dost bringdown the countenance of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright: The Lord my God will make also my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomsit, Lord, I shall:

By thee I scale and over-leap the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God, his word is purely try'd: He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord? for other there is none:

Or elfe, who is omnipotent faving our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with is he that I do mean: (firength, That all the ways wherein I walk, did evermore keep clean.

32 That made my feet like to the in swiftness of my pace: (harts And for my surety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands to battel and to fight:

To break in funder bars of brafs, he gave mine arms the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy saving thy right hand is my row'r: (health, Thy love and familiarity doth still increase my pow'r.

the way enlarg'd by thee: So I go fafely, and my feet are kept from fliding free.

36 And fiercely I purfue and take my foes that me annoy'd: And from the field do not return, till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rife no more: For at my feet they fall down flat, I strike them all so fore.

38 For thou dost gird me with thy to war in fuch a wife, (ftrength That they be all scatter'd abroad that up against me rise.

39 Lord, thou haft put into my hands my mortal en'mies yoke :

And all my foes thou dost divide in funder with thy stroke.

40They call'd for help, but none gave nor help them with relief: Yea, to the Lord they call'd for help, yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind, I drive them under feet:

And sweep them out like filthy clay that flicketh in the ffreet.

42 Thou keep'st me from seditious that still in strife are led:

And thou doft of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

35 And/under me thou makest plain | 43 A people strange, to me unknown, and yet they shall me serve: And at the first obey my word, whereas mine own will fwerve.

> 44 I shall be irksome to mine own, they will not fee my light:

But wander wide out of the way, and hide them out of fight.

45 But bleffed be the living Lord, most worthy of all praise: That is my rock and faving health, praised be he always.

46 For God it is that gave me pow'r revenged for to be:

And with his holy word fubdu'd the people unto me,

47 And from my foes deliver'd me, and fet me above those That cruel and ungodly were, aud up against me rose. 48 And for this cause, O Lord my God, to thee give thanks I shall :: And fing out praises to thy Name among the Gentiles all.

49 Thou gavest great prosperity unto the King, I fay:

To David thine anointed King, and to his feed for aye.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft. all glory be therefore :

to take my life away.

14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid, not to be over-trod: For I confess, and still have said, thou art my Lord and God.

O Lord, is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage,
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant, Lord, express and shew thy joyful face:
And save me, Lord, for thy goodness, thy mercy, and thy grace.

The Third part.

for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in the grave to fall.

(right,

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips outwhich are addict to lies:
And cruelly with pride and spight, against the just devise.

(store,

19 O how great good hast thou in laid up full safe for them That fear and trust in thee therefore, before the sons of men!

(guide, 20 Thy presence shall them sence and from all proud brags and wrongs: Within thy place thou shalt them hide from all the strife of tongues.

on me his grace so far:
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.

22 Thus did I say both day & night, when I was fore opprest:

Lo, I was clean cast out of sight, yet heard'st thou my request.

- 23 Yesaints, love ye the Lord alway, | 24 Be of good courage evermore, the faithful he doth guide : . And to the proud he doth repay according to their pride.
  - on God your strength depend: For those that put their trust in him, he ever will defend.

imputeth not his fin :

Which in his heart hath hid no guile, nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilft that I kept close my fin in silence and constraint, with daily moan and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me fo grievous was and fmart, That all my blood and homors moift to driness did convert.

I did

5 I did therefore confcs my fault, and all my fins discover:

Then thou, O Lord, didft me forgive, and all my fins pass over.

6 The humble man shall pray thereand seek thee in due time:

So that the floods of waters great fhall have no pow'r on him.

7 When trouble and adversity do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

S Come hither, and I will thee teach how thou shalt walk aright:

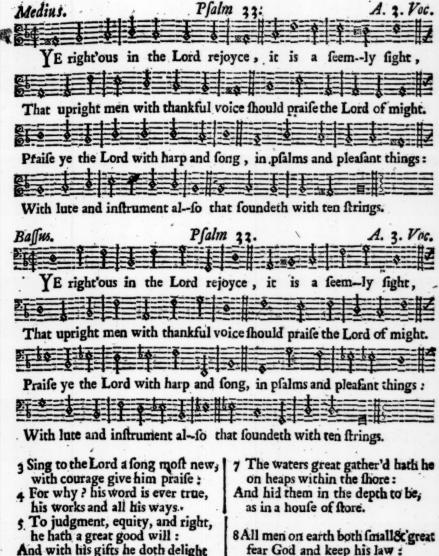

I will thee guide as I my felf have learn'd by proof and fight.

9 Be not fo rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a rein or bit from harm thou canst not rule.

to The wicked man shall manifold for rows and griefs sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God, his goodness shall remain.

ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart with chearfulness rejoyce.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heav'ns above were wrought:
Their hofts and powers ev'ry one his breath to pass hath brought.

the earth throughout to fill.

8 All men on earth both small& great fear God and keep his law: Ye that inhabit in each coast, dread him and stand in awe. 9 What he commanded wrought it what he commanded wrought it at once with prefent speed: (was What he doth will is brought to pass with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude | 17 The troops of horsemen all shall fail the Lord doth bring to nought:

He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still, they never flack nor fwage: The motions of his mind and will take place in ev'ry age.

> The Second part. (Lord

12 And bleft are they to whom the as God and guide is known: Whom he doth chuse of meer accord to take them as his own. 13 The Lord from heaven did cast his on men mortal by birth :

14 Beholding from his feat of might the dwellers on the earth.

(wrought 15 The Lord, I fay, whose hand hath man's heart, and doth it frame: For he alone doth know the thought, and working of the same.

16 A king that trusteth in his host, shall nought prevail at length :

The man that of his might doth boaft, shall fall from all his strength.

their flurdy fleeds shall swerve:

The strength of horse shall not prethe rider to preferve.

18 But lo the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the just : With fuch as fear him to offend, and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great diffress may fet their fouls from dread:

And if that dearth their land oppress, in hunger them to feed. (depend 20 Wherefore our foul doth whole on God our strength and stay:

He is our shield us to defend, and drive all darts away.

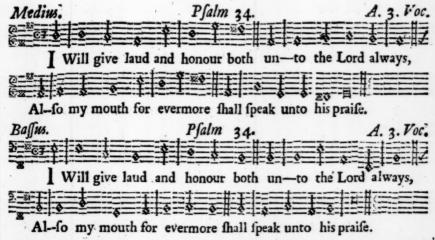

21 Our joyful fouls always proclaim his power and his might:

For why? in his most holy Name we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thygoodness, OLord, still present with us be:

As we always with one accord do only trust in thee.

- 2 I do delight to laud the Lord in foul, in heart, and voice: That humble men and mortify'd may hear, and fo rejoyce.
- 3 Therefore fee that ye magnifie with me the living Lord, Let us exalt his holy Name always with one accord.
- A For I my felf befought the Lord, he answer'd me again,
  And me deliver'd instantly from all my fear and pain.
- 5 Whoso they be that him behold, shall see his light most clear:
  Their countenance shall not be dashr, they need it not to fear.
- 6 This poor distressed man for help unto the Lord did call: Who did him hear without delay, and rid him out of thrall.
- 7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in ev'ry place,
  To fave all fuch as do him fear, that nothing them deface.

- 8 Tafte and confider well therefore, that God is good and just:
  O happy man that maketh him his only stay and trust.
- o Fear ye the Lord, ye ho'y ones, above all earthly thing:
  For they that fear the living Lord, are fure to lack nothing.
- no The Lions shall be hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much:
  But as for them that fear the Lord, no lack shall be to such.

  The second part.

and to my words give ear:

I will you teach the perfect way, how ye the Lord should fear.

and lead a godly life? (long, 13 See thou refrain thy tongue and from all deceit and strife. (lips

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill, and do the godly deed: Enquire for peace and quierness, and follow it with speed. E 3 15 for why? the eyes of God above upon the just are bent:

His ears likewife to hear the cry of the poor innocent.

(brows

16 But he doth frown and bend his upon the wicked train: And cuts away the memory that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry, the Lord doth hearthem so, That out of pain and misery forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that broken hearted are:
And for the contrite spirit he falvation doth prepare.

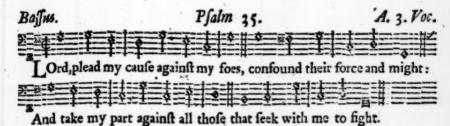

19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men endure: But of deliv'rance from them all the Lord doth them secure.

20 The Lord doth so preserve & keep their very bones alway, That not so much as one of them do perish or decay.

21 The fin shall slay the wicked man, which he himself hath wrought: And such as hate the righteous man, shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord, are ever fafe and found: And as for those that trust in him, nothing shall them confound.

thy felf in armour drefs: Stand up for me and fight the field. to help me from diffress.

2 Gird on thy fword,& stop the way, mine enemies withstand : That thou unto my foul may'ft fay, I am thy help at hand.

(blame, 4 Confound them with rebuke and that feek my foul to spill: Let them turn back and flee with that feek to work me ill. (fhame,

Let them disperse and flee abroad, as wind doth drive the dust : That so the angel of our God their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their ways be void of light. and flipp'ry like to fall: And fend thine angel with thy might, to perfecute them all.

(have 7 For why? without my fault they in fecret fet their gin : And for no cause have digg'd a pit to take my foul therein.

(care, 8 When they think leaft, and have no O Lord, destroy them all : Let them be trapt in their own fnare, and in their miscief fall.

Lay hand upon the spear and shield, 19 And let my soul, my heart & voice, in God have joy and wealth: That in the Lord I may rejoyce. and in his faving health.

(fay. 10 Then all my bones thall fpeak and my parts shall all agree : O thou great God of heav'n & earth, what man is like to thee?

The Second part. (them II Thou didst defend the weak from that are both flout and frong: And rid the poor from wicked men that spoil and do them wrong.

12 My cruel foes against me rife, to witness things untrue: And to accuse me they devise of things I never knew.

(will, 13. Where I to them did shew good they quit me with difdain: That they should pay my good with my foul doth fore complain. (therefore,

14 When they were fick I mourn'd my felf in fackcloth clad : With fasting did I faint full fore, and pray'd with heart most fad.

35 As they had been my brethren dear I did my feif behave : As one that mourneth heavily about his mothers grave.

16 But they in mine adverfity did gather in a rout: Yea, abject flaves reproachfully at me did mock and flout.

17 The belly-gods, & flatt'ring train, that all good things deride: At me do grin with great disdain, and pluck their mouths aside.

18 Ld, when wilt thou for me appear?
why doft thou ftay, and paule?
O rid my foul, mine only dear, out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to before the Church always: (thee And where most of the people be, there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me, which hate me for no fault: Nor let them wink or turn their eye, that causeless me assault.

The Third part.
21 Of peace no word they think or fay,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult, and would betray all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me, their fury is like fire:
Well, well, fay they, our eye doth fee the thing that we defire.

2; But, Lord, thou feeft what ways and what they do intend:

Be not far off, nor me forsake, as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arife, and stir abroad, defend me in my right: Revenge my cause, O Lord my God, and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness, my Lord God, set me free: And let them not their pride express, nor triumph over me.

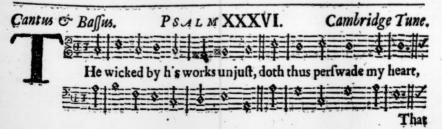

26Let not their hearts rejoyce & cry, Ev'n fo we would it have: Nor give them cause to say on high, He's sunk into the grave.

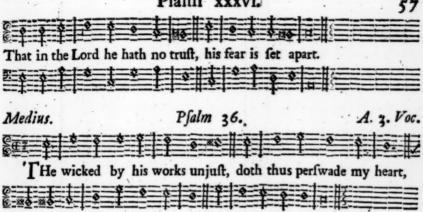

27 Confound them with rebuke and that joy when I do mourn: And pay them home with spite and that brag at me with scorn. (blame

28 Let them most heartly rejoyce, which love mine upright way: Let them all times with heart & voice still praise the Lord and say, 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell, and he doth much delight To fee his fervants prosper well, it is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply thy righteourness to praise, To thee the Lord my God, will I give laud and thanks always.

He wicked by his works unjust, doth thus perswade my heart.

That in the Lord he hath no trust, his fear is fet apart.

That in the Lord he hath no truft, his fear is fet apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate, to walk as he began : So long till he deferve the hate of God as well as man.

(naught, 2 His words are wicked, vile, and his tongue no truth doth tell: Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well.

- 4 When he should sleep then doth he his mischief to fulfill? (mufe, No wicked ways doth he refuse, nor any thing that's ill.
- 5 But, Ld, thy goodness doth ascend above the heav'ns most high: So dorh thy truth it felf extend unto the cloudy sky.

- 6 Much more than hills fo high and thy justice is exprest: (fteep, Thy judgments like to feas most deep thou fav'ft both man and beaft.
- 7 Thy mercy is above all things, O God, it doth excell: In trust whereof, as in thy wings, the fons of men shall dwell.
- 8 Within thy house shall they be fed with plenty at their will: Of all delights they shall be sped, and take thereof their fill.
- 9 Because the well of life most pure doth ever flow from thee: And in thy light we are full fure the lafting light to fee.

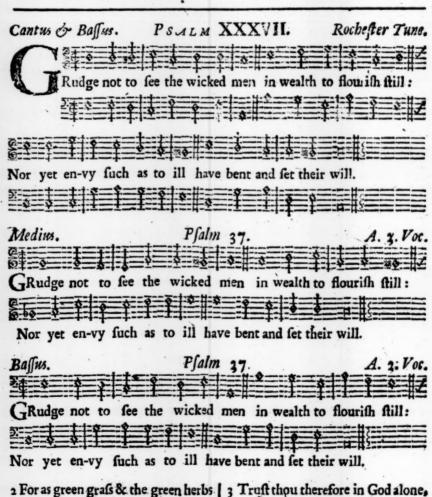

to From .

10 From fuch as thee defire to know, | Nor let the wicked me affail, let not thy grace depart : Thy righteouiness declare and show to men of upright heart.

It Let not the proud on me prevail, O Lord, of thy good grace :

to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their device shall fall. that wicked works maintain: They shall be certainly cast down, and never rife again.

- and look what thou wouldst have, Or else canst wish in all the world thou needst it not to crave.
- s Cast both thy felf and thine affairs on God with perfect truft, And thou shalt see with patience th'effect both fure and just.
- 6 Thy perfect life and godly Name he will clear as the light: So that the funev'n at noon day shall not shine half so bright.
- 7 Be still therefore, and stedfastly on God fee thou wait then, Nor shrinking for the prosperous of lewd and wicked men.
- 8 Shake off despight, envy, and hate, let not thine anger rife : That thou may'ft not be drawn into fome wicked enterprise.
- o For ev'ry wicked man will God destroy both more and less: But fuch as trust in him are fure the land for to poliefs.
- 10 Wait but a while, & thou shalt see no more the wicked train, No not so much as house or place where once he did remain.
- The second part. 11 But merciful and humble men enjoy shall sea and land: In rest and peace they shall rejoyce, for nought shall them withstand.
- 13 The lewd men and malicious against the just conspire They gnash their teeth at hish, as men which do his bane defire.

- 4 In God fet all thy heart's delight, 13 But while ungodly men thus think. the Lord laughs them to fcorn: For he doth fee their term approach, when they shall figh and mourn.
  - 14 The wicked have their fword out their bow also is bent, To overflow and kill the poor, whose life is innocent.
  - (their heart 15 But the fame fword shall pierce which was to kill the just: So shall the bow in shivers break wherein they put their trust.
  - 16Doubtless the just man's poor estate is to be valued more Than all the lewd and wicked man's rich pomp and heaped flore.
  - 17 For tho their power be most strong, God will it overthrow: Where contrary he doth preserve the humble men and low.
  - 18 He fees by his great providence the good man's trade and way : And will give them inheritance which never shall decay.
  - 19 They shall not be discouraged, when some are hard bestead : When others shall be hunger bit. they thall be clad and fed.
  - 20 For whosoever wicked is. and enemy to God, Shall like the fat of lambs confume, or smoak that flies abroad. The third part.
  - 21 Behold the wicked borrows much. and never pays again: Whereas the just by lib'ral gifts the needy doth suffain.

22 For they whom God doth bless, | 31 For in his heart the law of God the land for heritage: (shall have And they whom he doth curse likeshall perish in his rage. (wife 23 The Lord the just man's steps doth and all his works doth blefs: (guide, To ev'ry thing he takes in hand he giveth good fuccefs.

24 Thô he do fall, yet is he fure not utterly to fink : For God upholdshim with his hand, and from him will not fhrink.

25 I have been young, but now am yet did I never see The just man left, nor yet his feed to beg for milery.

26 He gives always most lib'rally, and lends where there is need: By which he doth from God fecure a bleffing to his feed.

27 Flee vice therefore & wickedness, and virtue to embrace : So God shall grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place.

28 For God fo loveth equity, and shews to his such grace, That he preserveth them, but doth cut off the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men inherit shall the land, Having as lords all things therein in their own power and hand.

(fpeak 30 The just man's mouth doth ever of matters wife and high: Historgue doth talk of judgment, & of truth and equity.

his Lord doth still abide : So that wherever he doth go, his foot shall never slide.

32 The wicked like a greedy wolf the just man doth beset, By all means feeking him to kill, and take him in his net. The fourth part.

33 But thô he fall into his hands, yet God will fuccour fend: Thô men against him sentence give, God will him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God, & keep his way, he shall preserve thee then The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd those wicked men. (strong,

35 The wicked have I feen most and plac'd in high degree, Flourishing in all wealth and store, as doth the laurel-tree.

36 But fuddenly he pass'd away, and lo he was quite gone: (find Then I him fought but could not the place where dwelt fuch one.

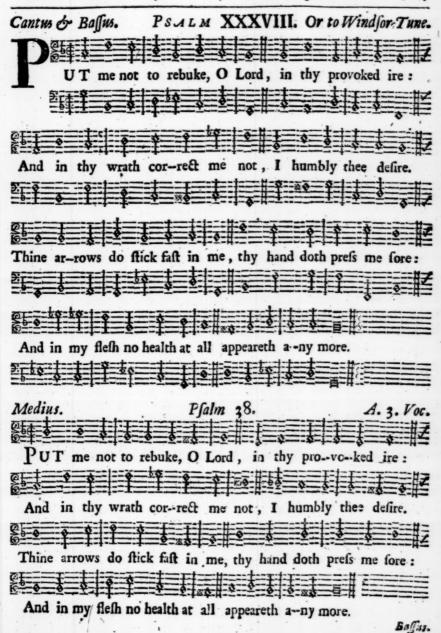

37 Mark and behold the perfect man, his God doth him increase: For the just man shall have at length great joy with rest and peace.

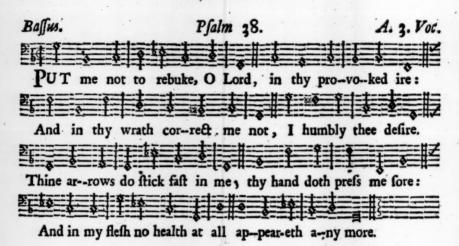

38 As for transgressors, we to them, destroy'd they all shall be: God will cut off their budding race, and rich posterity.

39 But the falvation of the just doth come from God above: Who in their troubles sends them aid of his meer grace and love.

40 God evermore delivers them from lewd men and unjust:

And still will save them, whilst that in him do put their trust. (they

3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in: Nor any rest is in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For lo, my wicked doings, Lord, above my head are gone: A greater load than I can bear, they lie me fore upon.

5 My wounds do flink, & are corrupt, and loathfom are to fee: Which all through mine own foolishdoth happen unto me.

6 And I in careful wife am brought into fuch great diffress,

That I go wailing all the day in doleful heaviness.

7 My loyns are fill'd with fore difeafe. my flesh hath no whole part:

8 I feeble am and broken fore, and roar for grief of heart. (grones

9 Thou know'ft, Lord, my defire, my are open in thy fight: (doth fail,

10 My heart doth pant, my strength mine eyes have loft their light.

1 1My lovers and my wonted friends fland looking on my wo:

Also my kinsmen far away are me departed fro.

12 They that do feek my life lay and they that go the way

To do me hurt, speak lies and think on mischief all the day. The fecond part.

13 But as a deaf man I became, that cannot hear at all:

14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

15 For all my confidence, O Lord, is wholly fet on thee:

Therefore, O Lord, that art my God, de thou give ear to me.

16 This do I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

For when my foot doth flip, then they rejoyce my fall to fee.

17 And I am ready for to halt, I cannot stand upright:

Also my grievous heaviness is ever in my light.

18 For while that I my wickedness in humble wife confess,

And while I for my finful deeds my forrows do express:

19 My foes do still remain alive, and mighty are also:

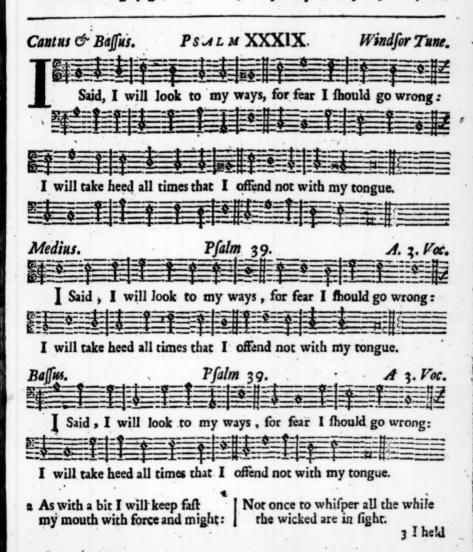

And they that hate me wrongfully, in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me, that my with evil do repay: (good, Because that good and honest things I do ensue alway.

21 Forlake me not, O Lord my God, be thou not far away:

22 Haste me to help, my Lord, my my safety and my stay. (God, (word. 3 I held my tongue, and spake no but kept me close and still:

Yea, from good talk I did refrain, but fore against my will.

(breaft 4 My heart wax'd hot within my with musing, thought, and doubt, Which did increase and stir the fire: at last these words burst out:

5 Lord, number out my life and days which yet I have not past, So that I may be certify'd how long my life shall last.

(life 6 Lord, thou hast pointed out my in length much like a span: Mine age is nothing unto thee, so vain is ev'ry man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vain himfelf annoy, In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.

(for? 8 Therefore now, Lord, what wait I what help do I defire? 'Of truth my help depends on thee, I nothing elfe require.

The Second part. 9 From all the fins that I have done, Lord, quit me out of hand, And make me not a fcorn to fools that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain no trouble might me move: Because I knew it was thy work, my patience for to prove. (and plague,

11 Lord take from me thy scourge I can them not withstand:

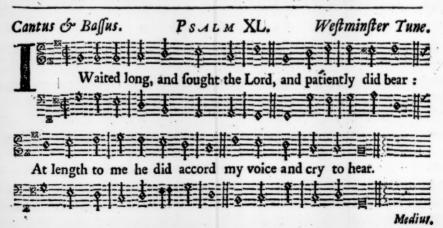

I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.

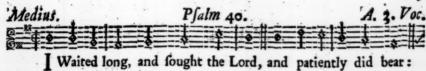

(buke, 12 When thou for fin dost man rehe waxeth woe and wan,

As doth a cloth that moths have fret, fo vain a thing is man. (heed, 13 Lord, hear my fuit, and give good regard my tears that fall: I fojourn like a stranger here, as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space my strength for to restore, Before I go away from hence, and shall be seen no more.

At length to me he did accord my voice and cry to hear.

At length to me he did accord my voice and cry to hear.

out of the mire and clay: Upon a rock he fet my feet, and he did guide my way.

- 2 Tome he taught a pfalm of praife, which I must shew abroad : And fing new fongs of thanks always. unto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folk these things shall as people much afraid, Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust upon his aid.

- 6 For, Lord my God, thy wondrous in greatness far do pass: Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
- 7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show, To fuch a reckning they do rife, thereof no end I know.

- 2He pluck'd me from the lake so deep | 8 Burnt-off rings thou delight'st not I know thy whole defire, With facrifice to purge his fin thou doft no man require.
  - 9 Meat-offerings and facrifice thou would'ff not have at all: But thou, O Lord, haft open made mine ears to hear withall.
  - 10 But then faid I, Behold and look. I come with heart most free: For in the Volume of thy book thus it is faid of me. (mind.
  - 11 That I, O God, should do thy which thing doth please me well : For in my heart thy, law I find fast placed there to dwell.
  - 12 Thy righteousness and justice I in great assemblies tell : B.hold, mytongue no time doth ceafe. O Lord thou know'ft full well. The second part.
  - 13 I have not hid within my breaft thy goodness as by stealth: But I declare and have exprest thy truth and faving health. 14 I kept that no man should it know:

The trust that in thy truth I find, to all the Church I show.

15 Thy tender Mercy, Lord, from me withdraw thou not away:

But let thy love and verity preferve me ev'ry day.

16 For I with many troubles am encompassed about :

My fins fo greatly do increase, I cannot fpy them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:

My heart doth faint for very fear, that I am almost dead.

18With speed send help, and set me O Lord, I thee require : Make hafte with aid to fuccour me, O Lord, at my defire.

14 I kept not close thy loving mind, 1 19 Confound them with rebuke and that feek my foul to spill: (shame Drive back my foes, & them defame. that wish me any ill.

> 20 For their ill feats do them descry that would deface my name:

Always at me they rail and cry, Fie on him, fie for shame.

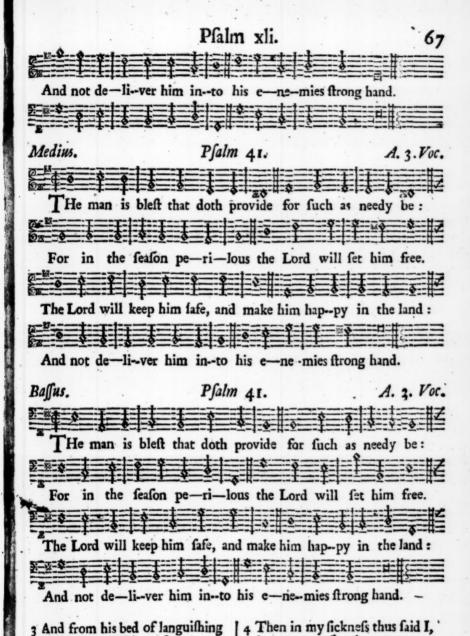

21Let them in thee have joy & wealth that feek to thee always:

That those that love thy faving health may fay, To God be praise.

22 But as for me, I am but poor, opprest and brought full low: Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and my refuge, help and flay: (truft, Wherefore, my God, as thou art just, with me no time delay.

have mercy, Lord, on me, For thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health | And heal my foul which is full woe that I offended thee.

the Lord will him restore:

his fickness and his fore.

5 My foes did wish me ill in heart, and thus of me did say,

When shall he die, that so his name may perish quite away?

- 6 And when they come to visit me, they ask if I do well: (hatch, But in their hearts they mischief and then abroad it tell.
- 7 All they that hate me do conspire against me crastily:

And still devise how to procure my ruine secretly. (him to

- 8 Some grievous fin hath brought this fickness, say they plain:
  He is so low, that without doubt he cannot rise again.
- 9 The man also that I did trust, with me did use deceit: Who at my table eat my bread, the same for me laid wait.

and let me be preserv'd,

That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.

to be belowed of thee,

Because my foes no power have to triumph over me.

12But in my right thou hast me kept, and it maintained well: And in thy presence place assign?d

And in thy presence place assign'd where I shall ever dwell.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Ev'n so be it, Lord, will I say,
Praise ye the Lord therefore.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
immortal Glory be:
As was, is now, and shall be still to all Eternity.

My foul doth thirst, and would the living God of might:

Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his fight.

3 The tears all times are my repast which from mine eyes do slide: Whist wicked men cry out so fast, Where now is God thy guide?

4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had!
Therefore my foul, as at pit's brink,
most heavy is and sad.

For I did march in good array, with joyful company: Unto the temple was our way, to praise the Lord most High.

5 My foul, why art thou fad always, and frett it thus in my breast? Trust still in God, for him to praise I hold it ever best.

By him I have fuccour at need, against all pain and grief: He is my God, which with all speed doth haste to send relief.

6 My foul within me is cast down, therefore, O Lord, I will Remember thee from Jordan's land, and Hermon's little hill. The second part.
7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodness, and help at all assays: Likewise by night I did not cease the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with reverence,
 O Lord, thou art my guide and stay, my rock and sure defence.

Why do I then in pensiveness hanging the nead thus walk, While that mine enemies oppress, and yex me with their talk?

(parts to For why? they pierce my inward with pains to be abhorr'd, (hearts,
When they cry out with flubborn
Where is thy God the Lord?
(faint,

ut So foon, my foul, why dost thou with pain and grief opprest?
Why do fad thoughts without rethus rage within my breast? (straint 12 Trust in the Lord thy God always, and thou the time shalt see To give him thanks with laud and for health restor'd to thee. (praise, 30 Lord, fend out thy light & truth, and lead me with thy grace, Which may conduct me to thy hill, and to thy dwelling-place.

4 Then shall I to thine altar go with joy to worship there:

my foe oppresseth me ?

5 Why art thou then fo fad my foul, and frett'ft thus in my breast? Still trust in God: for him to praise I hold it always best.

6 By him I have deliverance against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway at need fend me relief.

A. 3. Voc.

Thou hast been mer-ci-ful indeed, O Lord, un-to thy land:

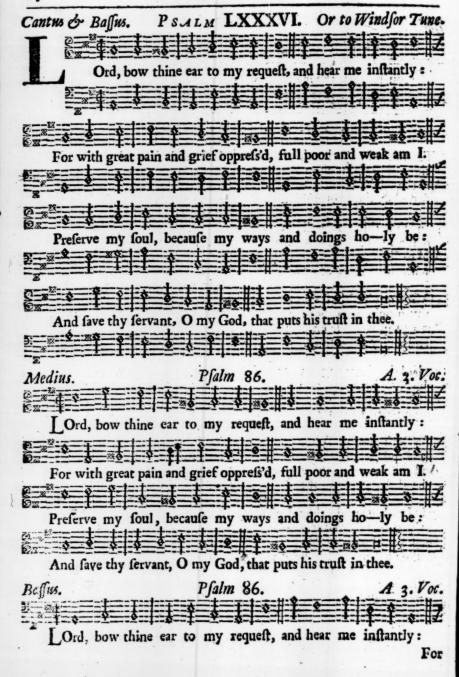

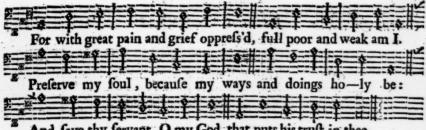

For thou restored'st Jacob's seed from thraldom, and from band.

- The wicked ways that they were in, thou didft them clean remit:
  And thou didft hide thy people's fin, full close thou cover'dft it.
- 3 And thou thine anger didst asswage, that all thy wrath was gone: And so didst turn thee from thy rage, with them to be at one.
- 4 OGod our health, do now convert thy people unto thee: Put all thy wrath from us apart, and angry cease to be.
- 5 Shall thy fierce anger never end, but still be pour'd on us? And shall thy wrath it felf extend upon all ages thus?
- 6 Wilt thou not rather turn again, and quicken us, that we And all thy folk may evermore be glad and joy in thee?
- 7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodness to our wealth: Shew forth to us, and do not spare, thine aid and saving health.
- 8 PII hearken what God faith to me,

- And to his faints that never they return to foolishness.
- 9 For why? his help is still at hand to such as do him fear: Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
- in one to take their place: (meet And peace shall justice with kissgreet; and there they shall embrace.
- and flourish pleasantly: (apace, So right'ousness shall shew her face, and look from heaven most high.
- 12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand to give us each good thing: And through the coasts of all the land the earth her fruit shall bring.
- much like a guide or stay:
  He shall direct his steps also,
  and keep them in the way.
  Gloria Patri.

My rising up, and thoughts far off, thou understand'st al-so.

3 My paths, yea, and my lying down | 10 Yet certainly there also shall thou compassest always: And by familiar custom art acquainted with my ways.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord. that is not known to thec:

Thou half befet me round about, and laid thy hand on me.

& Such knowledge is too wonderful. and past my skill to gain:

It is so high, that I unto the fame cannot attain.

7 From fight of thy all-feeing Sp'rit, Lord, whither shall I go Or whither shall I fly away from thy presence also?

8 To heav'n if I do mount aloft, lo, thou art present there: In hell if I lie down below, ev'n there thou dost appear.

o Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me go and dwell Ev'n in the very utmost parts where flowing fee doth swell:

thy hand me lead and guide: And thy right hand shall hold me and make me to abide.

11 Or if I fay, The darkness shall fhroud me quite from thy fight: Ev'n then the night that is most dark, about me shall be light.

12 The darkness hideth not from thee, but night doth shine as day: To thee the darkness and the light are both alike alway.

The Second part. 13 For thou possessed hast my reins, and thou hast cover'd me When I within my mother's womb enclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully and wondroufly I am: Thy works are marvellous, right well my foul doth know the fame.

19 The wicked and the ungodly most furely thou wilt slay:

Therefore now all ye bloody men, depart from me away. 20 For they against thee, O my God, do speak full wickedly:

They take thy Name in vain, and are great enemies to thee. (Lord, 21 Hate I not them that hate thee, and that in earnest wise?

Am I not grieved with all those that up against thee rise?

22 I hate them with a perfect hate, ev'n as my utter foes: (heart,

23 Try me, O God, and know my my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider, Lord, if wickedness in me there any be:

And in thy ways, O God my guide, for ever lead thou me.

And there is none that can remove, or take the time from me;

But only thou, whose aid I crave, whose mercy still is prest. To ease all those that come to thee for succour and for rest.

And since thou see'st my restlesseyes, my tears and grievous groan;

Attend unto my suit, O Lord, mark my complaint and moan:

For fin hath so inclosed me, and compass'd me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But ev'n thy Christ, my Lord & God,
who for my fins was slain.

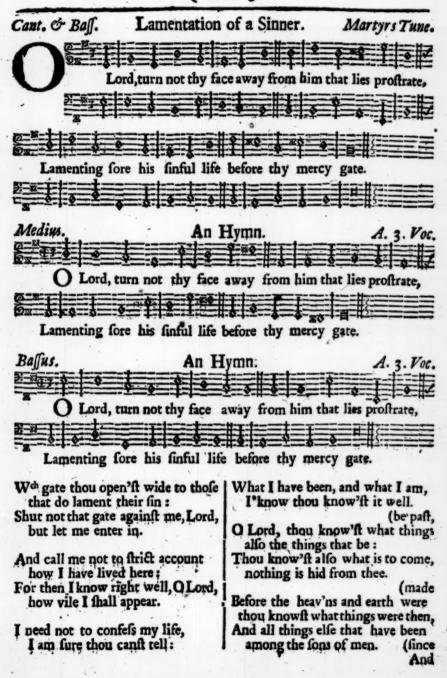

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see, tho not with mortal eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them all, and so I trust shall I.
Tho sin doth hinder me a while, when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him who shed for me his blood.

And as thine angels and thy faints do now behold the fame:
So trust I to possess that place, with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale where sinners do frequent,
Assist me ever with thy grace, my fins still to lament:

Lest that I tred the sinners trace, and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness, whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay, let that with me remain:
For if I fall then of my self
I cannot rise again.

Wherefore this is yet once again my fuit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my fin, that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy Church & house of faints fing Pfalms to thee always.

And can the things that I have done | Desiring mercy for my fin. be hidden from thee then?

No,no,thou know'ft them all,OLord, where they were done, and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee to beg and to intreat, Ev'n as the child that hath done ill, and feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate, where mercy doth abound, to heal my deadly wound.

O Lord, I need not to repeat what I do beg or crave: Thou know'ft, O Lord, before I ask, the thing that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask, this is the total fum: For mercy, Lord, is all my fuit. Lord, let thy mercy come.

No, no, thy will is not fo bent to deal with finners in thine ire; But when in heart they shall repent, thou grant'st wth speed their just de-To thee therefore still will I cry, (sire, to wash away my finful crime: Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry, but that it may help me in time. Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee, I say, to pour on me thy gists of grace, That when this life shall pass away, in heav'n wth thee I may have place: Where thou dost reign eternally with God, wth once did down thee Where Angels sing continually (send, to theebe praise world without end.

Neglect no time our God to praife. Gloria Patri. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft, One bleffed consubstantial Three: All highest Praise, all humblest Thanks, May now and still for ever be.

And whilft we fing, we'll confecrate that too too much prophaned Art; By off'ring up with evry Tongue in ev'ry Song a flaming Heart.

We'll hallow Pleasure, and redeem from vulgar use our precious Voice: Those Lips which wantonly have sung, shall serve our turn for nobler Joys.

Thus we will imitate on Earth poor Mortals still the heavinly Quires:

And with high Notes, above the Clouds we'l send with words more rais'd destres.

And that Above we may be fure,
when we come there our part to know:
Whilft we live here, at Home and Church
we'll practice Singing oft below.
Gloria Patri.

Glory and Praise be given most, To Father, Son and Holy Ghost: Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.
